Crawford Awarded Teacher of the Month for December

By: Shelby McNary

David Crawford, science instructor, was named Teacher of the Month for December. Cody Smith, Marysville, provided an award and check to Crawford for his work with the students of Valley Heights Junior-Senior High School.

Smith, owner of Cody Smith Insurance Agency/Farmers Insurance at 1212 Broadway in Marysville presented Crawford with a plaque and a $100 check for use in his classroom.

On the voting ballots comments made as to why Crawford deserved the Teacher of the Month award included:

“Expects a lot out of students. Encourages students to use complete sentences and complete thoughts when answering questions in his class.”

“Always quick to offer help to other teachers.”
